RELIEVING PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Twilight Concert

Last night our school community came together to enjoy an evening of fine music presented by our students. It was a fantastic evening that truly highlighted the wonderful opportunities that are available to students here at Newport. Our students performed with great pride and the evening demonstrated incredible talent - from our beginning group, the V1 Violins through to our accomplished Stage and Performance Bands, the students demonstrated musical excellence. I would like to thank our hardworking band committee, the music tutors and conductors and our school liaison, Greg Moran, for coordinating the event.

Girls Cricket Knockout

Our Girls Cricket team travelled to Goulburn yesterday to play in the penultimate round of the State Knockout competition. They were successful winning the game scoring 3 for 107 and bowling out the opposition for 88 in the 24th over. The girls have now made it to the final to be held next week in Maitland. We wish them all luck for this important game.

Strategic Planning 2015

Last Thursday evening and this Monday morning we held our school strategic planning forums for parents. Although our groups were small, they were very productive and provided us with a terrific insight into the aspirations of our community for our students and school. We have received quite a degree of interest from parents who were unable to make the forums but wish to participate in the process. An online survey will be released later this week to ensure everyone has the chance to have input into this important process.

Are you Leaving Us?

As school accommodation and our staffing allocation for each year are based upon our student enrolments, accurate student numbers are vital to our successful planning for 2015. As a result, we ask that if you know that your child will be leaving Newport at the end of this year (Year 6 excepted of course) that you send us a short note indicating their last day of attendance and the name of the school they will be attending in 2015. You may also email this to Newport-p.school@det.nsw.edu.au.

Trees

We have been notified by DEC Asset management Unit that a small number of trees around the school will be pruned or removed. This work will occur during the summer holiday break and will have no impact on student activities or safety. We look forward to this work occurring as access to all areas of the school will return for the start of 2015.

Regards,
Anthony Moran
Relieving Principal

CHESS NEWS

Today 20 keen Newport chess players will head to Pittwater House Preparatory School for the Mid Northern Beaches Primary Schools One-Day Chess Teams Tournament. Teams comprising of three players each will compete in a Swiss format system over the course of the day playing other children from Public and Independent schools. For many of our young rookies this will be their first Interschools competition and a great chance to represent their school. We wish all our players the best of luck today in the final one day tournament of the year.

LIBRARY NEWS

All library books must be returned to the library by the end of this week, so that we can organise the library in readiness for our end-of-year stocktake. There are still many children with overdue books. Look on bookshelves, under bed, in the car, at nana's, in the classroom, in a sibling's bedroom or at your friend's house for that elusive book! Contact the library if you have any problems or questions.

YOUNG WRITERS AWARD

Dear Miss,

I am going to be late for school on Wednesday. I am really sorry because I will miss the Maths test, and you know how much I love Maths tests! But I have a really good reason for not being there.

Yesterday my friend and I were playing in the park near our house. While we were looking for bugs we found an amazing tree. We climbed up the branches (it was just like climbing a ladder) until we reached the top. You won't believe what happened next!

The clouds went dark and thunder began to rumble, until we reached the clouds and climbed into them. I could not believe my eyes!! There were wings everywhere. It was a miracle. There were pets with wings, people with wings, ice creams with wings, salt and pepper with wings! Everything had wings. We tried really hard to get back down the tree, but the branches had all disappeared, honestly! We weren't very happy because we knew we would probably now be late for school.

We will try the best we can, but in case we don't make it down the tree in time can you save the Maths test for me?

From Sophia

PS This is actually rather secret, so don't tell anyone!!!! (Please)

True Blue By Heidi Adams 3LW

Hey true blue let's talk about you.

You're the colour of my eyes and the colour of the sparkling sky.

You're the colour of the big blue, I love swimming in you.

You're the colour of me when I'm at school.

I really am as blue as you.

You're the colour of icing and I cover the cake in you.

You're the colour of a flower that grows in my garden.

Hey true blue, are you still there?

Good let's talk more about you!

Oh true blue I love you.

You're the colour of a blueberry

Bye bye true blue I love you.

A student thinks imaginatively, creatively, interpretively and critically about information and ideas and identifies connections between texts when responding to and composing texts. EN3-7G

The very thought of passing through the dying city made my blood turn to ice, but I knew it was the only way. I trudged on, my mountain boots kept my feet from soaking in the thick mud patches and my gloves preventing my tiny hands from freezing. I suppressed a shiver and gazed to my right, thick pine trees covered the ground, letting only tiny streaks of light hit the forest floor. A thin creek ran beside us, it teasing us with its frozen water. Not one sign of life let itself be seen, there was just an eerie silence that felt like a blade hitting my ear. I held my sniper rifle closer to my body and I felt a tiny spark of safety inside me.

“Halt” grunted Alley, raising his fist as he did so. “What is it? It better not be another false call, because I swear if it is I’ll” ... Alex cut off as Alley barked at him to shut it. The tall, bulky man crouched down, pointing his pistol into the darkness of the darkness of the forest. Clutching my gun even closer to my chest, I whimpered, afraid of what lay ahead on our path to the city.

Contemporary and jazz piano/keyboard news

We would like to congratulate the following students for their excellent efforts in their Jazz Piano Exams this year.

The course curriculum is designed by the Associated board of Music Studies in London, known as ABRSM, and the examiners travel from the U.K. to Australasia each November.

The songs are very enjoyable musically and students need to play their pieces and include an improvisation in the true Jazz traditions.

- Jack Berry, (yr6), Grace Fisher, (yr6), Nina Lindley, (yr5), all Passed grade 1 jazz piano with Merit
- Tyger Cox, (yr4), Passed grade 1 jazz piano with Distinction

Over the past 10 years few students have been given merits and Tyger is the first student in the last 10 years to gain a Distinction in Grade 1.

Excellent work – well done!

Roc Koren

P.S. Any students who would like more info on Mr Koren's contemporary and jazz piano lessons or would like to enrol in 2015 please see attached pdf poster.
